

Noun or verb

Answer Key

1. Plants can defend themselves against bacteria, fungi, viruses, and insects by producing plant hormones.
Or:
Plants produce hormones to defend themselves against bacteria, fungi, viruses, and insects.
2. Microtubules are strongly associated with the Golgi apparatus.
3. Subsequently, the Tfs relocated to the nucleus.
4. The following flowchart compares the qualitative methods to identify drugs of abuse.